Curriculum Studies

Bible: Students should have been reviewing the Bible review sheet for chapters 28-29. We will review today & tomorrow. Test on Wednesday.

Arithmetic: Today we worked with the ten and eleven times & division facts. We will also work with mixed numerals this week. The math test is Thursday.

Spelling: Lesson 31 targets plural nouns. This should be a review since we have worked with plural nouns in English already this year. Test on Friday.

Penmanship: Lesson 17 will be covered. Ephesians 3:17 says "I pray that Christ will be more and more at home in your hearts, living within you as you trust in Him."

Reading: We are reading a play called "Two Crooks, Two Heroes." We will also work with a biographical dictionary and read "Beautiful Feet" about a Chinese woman who finds out that the most beautiful feet are those who spread the Gospel to others. I still have many students who have not turned in their April Reading Logs. Please turn them in as they are now late and losing points.

English: We continue to work on our persuasive writing. Students are working on revising and proofreading today. They will also be reviewing for Friday's Test.

History: Today we read the short chapter about John Greenleaf Whittier a poet. Tomorrow we will begin the chapter on Robert E. Lee.

Science: We started sound today.
