Dear Parents:

Mrs. Steinhauer will be teaching for wonderful children for next couple days. I am hoping to be back for good by Wednesday.

Next week is the Spring Book Fair. It is a great time to purchase some great summer fun read alouds and other activities to have on hand and pull out on a particularly warm day or on vacation.

Field Day is June 8. We can use lots of parent help with this day of fun. Please sign up right away. Field Day will involve both classes coming to school in the a.m.

Our Spring Concert is Tuesday, June 12, at 7:00 p.m. It is going to be a ball.

The last day of school is Friday, June 15. ☹ I find it to be a terribly sad day.

Show and Tell this week will be something that has to do with summer fun.

Have a wonderful week. God is good!!

Love, Diane
